

Schedule

May, 28	Café Promenade
17:00 – 21:00	Icebreaker Session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Introductions of Enterprises, Personalities & Projects – Flying Dinner – Networking If you would like to introduce yourself, your business activities or your project („Why I am here?“ and „What are my topics of interest?“) at the evening event, please mark this when you buy your ticket or contact us per Mail.
May, 29	MP09
08:45 - 09:15	Registration of Participants
09:15 - 09:30	Welcome words (VIRTUAL VEHICLE- Jost Bernasch & Bernhard Brandstätter)
09:30 - 10:45	Grid perspective: How to supply energy together with prosumers? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Teaser 1: David Grubinger (Salzburg Netz GmbH) - Future grid challenges – Teaser 2: Martin Mayr (e7 GmbH) - Energy communities & e-Mobility – Teaser 3: Jakob Gutenbrunner (Eaton Industries (Austria) GmbH) – Everything as a grid – Fishbowl discussion
10:45 - 11:15	Coffee break
11:15 - 12:15	Communication & charging infrastructure perspective <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Teaser 1: Markus Litzelbauer (Smatrics) - Charging Station operation A Daily Tension between Legal Regulations and Customer Needs – Teaser 2: Prof. Ralf Lehnert (TU Dresden) - Requirements on energy- and communication networks – Fishbowl discussion
12:15 - 13:30	Lunch
13:30 - 14:30	Research perspective: Impact on grid and battery <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Teaser 1: Georg Lettner (TU Vienna) - V2X in Austria - Insights from research – Teaser 2: Niels Köster (Virtual Vehicle) - Battery ageing related to V2X – Fishbowl discussion
14:30 - 15:00	Coffee break
15:00 - 16:00	Wrap-up & discussion "reached conclusions and questions for the future" (Plenary discussion)
16:00 - 16:15	Closing words and farewell (Virtual Vehicle - Bernhard Brandstätter)